Description

Grand Soleil 54

Intelligent luxury for the discerning sailor.

Everything is precise and calculated on the Grand Soliel 54. Style combined with technology make sailing both practical and enjoyable. Its clean essential lines and minimalism give it an elegant appearance and timeless style.

Stunning Design and Detail

Superyacht designer Luca Brenta had a vision for the Grand Soliel 54. "What is luxury? For me, luxury is an evolution" states Luca Brenta. The result is a collection of exclusive, innovative features just as a custom yacht should.

The GS 54 embodies the perfect combination of abundance, style and performance making it one of the best selling boats in the history of Cantiere del Pardo.

Grand Soleil 54 Features -

- Low coach roof for excellent visibility when steering
- Flush deck and open cockpit and steering stations
- Portholes providing plenty of natural lighting
- Foldaway spray hood
- Boom sheet below deck
- Recessed sail track
- Tender garage
- Huge stern bathing platform

Luxury in Living Space

The interior is an extraordinarily space as well as practical for living aboard. Experience is obvious in the unique handcrafted workmanship below.

Italians love their cooking so the easy-to-work-in galley and abundant counter space and storage is no surprise.

The solid wood detail, plenty of room for relaxing and lots of natural light are some of the features with sophisticated insight... a characteristic of Canitere de Prado pushing boundaries with new concepts in luxury.

Freedom to Customise

The focus is on the desires of the client. It is increasingly customisable and each owner can choose to make their GS 54 unique to their purpose and personality.

Pure Sailing with Innovative Technology

The infusion lamination and Torpedo shaped bulb keel make the boat lighter but also more rigid and resistant to
